Application Information

Please record your Application ID in a safe and secure place.

If there are technical issues with the system, or you want to complete your application some other time, you can save your work and later, start where you left off. In order to access your application later, however, you will need: (1) your Application ID, and (2) the answer to the security question that you will choose on this page.

To choose a security question, pick the one you like the best from the dropdown list, type your answer to that question in the box below, and click "Continue." Remember: In order to access your application later, you will need to know the answer exactly as you wrote it on this page.

You can also use your Application ID and security question to retrieve your Confirmation Page after you have submitted your application, or to use your previously provided application information to complete a new application at a later date.

If you do not plan to complete your application within the next 30 days, download your application to your computer by clicking the "Save" button at the bottom of the last completed page. Follow the instructions. When you are ready to complete your application, select "Upload an Application". NOTE: Only download your application to a computer that cannot be accessed by anyone who does not have your permission to see or record your personal data. If you download your application a shared or public computer, such as a computer in a cyber café or library, your personal information may be able to be accessed by other users.

Note: Electronically submitting your DS-160 online application is the FIRST STEP in the visa application process. The next step is to review the internet page of the embassy or consulate where you plan to apply for your visa. Most visa applicants will need to schedule a visa interview, though some applicants may qualify for visa renewal. The embassy or consulate information may include specific local instructions about scheduling interviews, submitting your visa application, and other frequently asked questions.

The screenshot shows the 'Security and Background: Part 5' section of the DS-160 form. The page header includes the U.S. Department of State logo and the text 'U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE CONSULAR ELECTRONIC APPLICATION CENTER'. The application ID is 'AAB0921JX9'. A sidebar on the left contains a navigation menu with options like 'Getting Started', 'Personal', 'Travel', 'Travel Companion', 'Previous U.S. Travel', 'Address and Phone', 'Passport', 'U.S. Contact', 'Family', 'Work / Education / Training', and 'Security and Background'. The 'Security and Background' section is expanded to show 'Part 5'. Below the navigation is a 'Help: Nonimmigrant Status' section with a link to 'Click on the buttons above to learn previously entered data.' The main content area contains ten questions, each with a 'Yes' or 'No' radio button and an 'Explain' text field. The questions are: 1. 'Have you ever withheld custody of a U.S. citizen child outside the United States from a person granted legal custody by a U.S. court?' 2. 'Have you voted in the United States in violation of any law or regulation?' 3. 'Have you ever renounced United States citizenship for the purposes of avoiding taxation?' 4. 'Are you a former exchange visitor (J) who has not yet fulfilled the two-year foreign residence requirement?' 5. 'Do you seek to enter the United States for purpose of performing skilled or unskilled labor but have not yet been certified by the Secretary of Labor?' 6. 'Are you a graduate of a foreign medical school seeking to perform medical services in the United States but have not yet passed the National Board of Medical Examiners examination or its equivalent?' 7. 'Are you a health-care worker seeking to perform such work in the United States but have not yet received certification from the commission or graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools or from an equivalent approved independent credentialing organization?' 8. 'Are you permanently ineligible for U.S. citizenship?' 9. 'Have you ever departed the United States in order to evade military service during a time of war?' 10. 'Are you coming to the U.S. to practice polygamy?' The bottom of the page features a footer with the text: 'This site is managed by the Bureau of Consular Affairs, U.S. Department of State. Upload Photo

Displayed for all applicants.

The main content area features a prominent red announcement: 'Starting November 1, 2016, eye glasses will no longer be allowed in new visa photos.' Below this, a paragraph explains the photo upload process: 'Click on the Upload Your Photo button below to access our photo submission system. Once there you will be given instructions on how to supply an approved photo for your Visa application. After you have selected the photo to upload and the system verifies the photo is acceptable, you will return to "Confirm Photo" to continue the application process.'

The footer includes a 'C' logo, a disclaimer: 'This site is managed by the Bureau of Consular Affairs, U.S. Department of State. External links to other Internet sites should not be construed as an endorsement of the views contained therein.', and links for 'Copyright Information', 'Disclaimers', and 'Paperwork Reduction Act'. A small '(2/3)' indicator is also present.

Read the following information carefully before dating, electronically signing and submitting the application.

Your application is now ready to be submitted. Please note that this does not necessarily mean that your application for a nonimmigrant visa is complete, as additional information may be needed after Department of State personnel have reviewed the application.

By clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are electronically signing the application. You are required to electronically sign your application yourself, unless otherwise exempt by regulation, even if the application has been prepared by someone other than yourself. Your electronic signature certifies that you have read and understood the questions in this application and that your answers are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. The submission of an application containing any false or misleading statements may result in the permanent refusal of a visa or the denial of entry into the United States. All declarations made in this application are unsworn declarations made under penalty of perjury. (28 U.S.C. 1746).

Additionally, by clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are certifying that you understand that you are required to submit your visa to the United States Immigration Officer at the port where you apply to enter the United States, and that possession of the visa does not entitle you to enter the United States if, upon your arrival, you are found to be inadmissible under U.S. immigration laws. You are certifying that you understand that any willfully false or misleading statement or willful concealment of a material fact made by you within the application may subject you to permanent exclusion from the United States and, if you are admitted to the United States, may subject you to criminal prosecution and/or deportation.

Some visa applicants are required to undergo a medical examination with an authorized physician to assess visa eligibility consistent with INA Sections 212(a) and 221(d), and will be notified of the requirement. If you are notified and required to undergo a medical examination, failure to provide required information may cause delay or denial of your visa application. If required to undergo a medical examination, your medical examination information may be collected and temporarily stored in the eMedical system hosted, operated, and maintained by the Australian Department of Home Affairs. If your medical examination is collected in eMedical, you will be requested to provide consent to its collection and temporary storage in such system, and being transferred to the U.S. Government for the purposes of enabling the U.S. Department of State to determine your medical eligibility and for the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention to undertake public health functions under the Public Health Service Act Section 325 and INA Section 212(a).

The information that you have provided in your application and other information submitted with your application may be accessible to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to use such information, including for law enforcement and immigration law enforcement purposes. If fingerprints are collected as part of your application process, they may be used for the purpose of comparing them to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) fingerprint system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories). If you wish to correct a record as it appears in the FBI's CJIS Division Records System, you should follow procedures to change, correct, or update a record that are set forth in Title 28, CFR, Section 16.34. The photograph that you provide with your application may be used for employment verification or other U.S. law purposes.

Once you have clicked "Sign and Submit Application" you will be unable to make changes. Electronically sign by clicking the button below after you have reviewed the information in your application and determined that it is correct. After signing the application, click "Next" to continue with the application.

Tuesday, October 08, 2019 - 10:58:13 AM EDT

You have successfully signed and submitted your application. You cannot make any changes to your application at this point. Please click 'Next: Confirmation' to complete the application process.

Your application indicates that you are applying for a K visa. Pursuant to the International Marriage Broker Regulation Act of 2005, you are required to receive a copy of an informational pamphlet. This pamphlet provides information on legal rights and resources available to aliens immigrating on a marriage-based visa. Please read the pamphlet carefully. We strongly encourage you to print a copy of the pamphlet and keep it with you if your visa is granted and you travel to the United States.

You have indicated that you are traveling for two or more purposes which could require more than one visa being issued. Please note that if more than one visa is to be issued, you will have to pay application and reciprocity fees for each.

Read the following information carefully before dating, electronically signing and submitting the application.

Your application is now ready to be submitted. Please note that this does not necessarily mean that your application for a nonimmigrant visa is complete, as additional information may be needed after Department of State personnel have reviewed the application.

By clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are electronically signing the application. You are required to electronically sign your application yourself, unless otherwise exempt by regulation, even if the application has been prepared by someone other than yourself. Your electronic signature certifies that you have read and understood the questions in this application and that your answers are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. The submission of an application containing any false or misleading statements may result in the permanent refusal of a visa or the denial of entry into the United States. All declarations made in this application are unsworn declarations made under penalty of perjury. (28 U.S.C. 1746).

Additionally, by clicking "Sign and Submit Application" you are certifying that you understand that you are required to submit your visa to the United States Immigration Officer at the port where you apply to enter the United States, and that possession of the visa does not entitle you to enter the United States if, upon your arrival, you are found to be inadmissible under U.S. immigration laws. You are certifying that you understand that any willfully false or misleading statement or willful concealment of a material fact made by you within the application may subject you to permanent exclusion from the United States and, if you are admitted to the United States, may subject you to criminal prosecution and/or deportation.

The information that you have provided in your application and other information submitted with your application may be accessible to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to use such information, including for law enforcement and immigration law enforcement purposes. If fingerprints are collected as part of your application process, they may be used for the purpose of comparing them to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) fingerprint system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories). The photograph that you provide with your application may be used for employment verification or other U.S. law purposes.

Once you have clicked "Sign and Submit Application" you will be unable to make changes. Electronically sign by clicking the button below after you have reviewed the information in your application and determined that it is correct. Note: Electronically submitting your DS-160 online application is the FIRST STEP in the visa application process. The next step is to review the internet page of the embassy or consulate where you plan to apply for your visa. Most visa applicants will need to schedule a visa interview, though some applicants may qualify for visa renewal. The embassy or consulate information may include specific local instructions about scheduling interviews, submitting your visa application, and other frequently asked questions.

YOU MUST BRING the confirmation page and the following document(s) with you at all steps during the application process:

Passport

You may also provide any additional documents you feel will support your case.

Instructions

YOU MUST SUBMIT the confirmation page with a clear and legible barcode at the time of your interview. If you do not have access to a printer at this time, select the option to email your confirmation page to an email address. You may print or email your application for your own records. YOU DO NOT need to submit the application at the time of the interview.

Please note that you will be required to provide proof that you have paid the visa application fee and any other fees associated with your application. There may be other fees associated with the visa application process. Please check your country's Reciprocity Schedule for any other fees you may owe.

If you have further questions, or to find out how to contact the Consular Post, please go to <http://kabul.usembassy.gov> or <http://travel.state.gov>.

NOTE: Unless exempt from an interview, you will be required to sign your application by providing a biometric signature, i.e. your fingerprint before a consular officer. By providing this biometric signature you are certifying under penalty of perjury that you have read and understood the questions in your nonimmigrant visa application and that all statements that appear in your nonimmigrant visa application have been made by you and are true and complete to the best of your knowledge and belief. Furthermore at the time of your interview, you will be required to certify under penalty of perjury that all statements in your application and those made during your interview are true and complete to the best of your knowledge and belief.

You electronically signed your application on 27-Apr-2017 02:27:28 (GMT-05:00). You were required to electronically sign your application yourself, unless otherwise exempt by regulation, even if the application was prepared by someone other than yourself. Your electronic signature certifies that you have read and understood the questions in this application and that your answers are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief. The submission of an application containing any false or misleading statements may result in the permanent refusal of a visa or the denial of entry into the United States. All declarations made in this application are unsworn declarations made under penalty of perjury. (28 U.S.C. 1746).

You certified that you understand that you are required to submit your visa to the United States Immigration Officer at the port where you apply to enter the United States, and that possession of the visa does not entitle you to enter the United States if, upon your arrival, you are found to be inadmissible under U.S. immigration laws. You certified that you understand that any willfully false or misleading statement or willful concealment of a material fact made by you within the application may subject you to permanent exclusion from the United States and, if you are admitted to the United States, may subject you to criminal prosecution and/or deportation.

The information that you have provided in your application and other information submitted with your application may be accessible to other government agencies having statutory or other lawful authority to use such information, including for law enforcement and immigration law enforcement purposes. If fingerprints are collected as part of your application process, they may be used for the purpose of comparing them to other fingerprints in the FBI's Next Generation Identification (NGI) fingerprint system or its successor systems (including civil, criminal, and latent fingerprint repositories).
